AoR Advertiser's Agreement – IMPORTANT PLEASE READ

As an AoR Advertiser you must abide by the following terms:

- AoR Advertisers cannot claim that their course is Accredited or Approved by the AoR on any advertising including website. The words “this qualification is accepted for full membership of the AoR/Association of Reflexologists” is acceptable.
- It is the Advertisers responsibility to inform the AoR of any changes to the qualification they are offering. Offering a qualification that is not acceptable for Full membership to the AoR will result in the listing being removed and no refund will be given. This includes a drop in face to face teaching hours below the AoR minimum hours required for membership. (50 hours on Provide Reflexology Unit).
- Websites must list the total number of face to face training days including the hours. The total number of hours must be greater than 50 hours.
- Provide clear and accurate information to potential students about content, assessment, pre-requisite qualifications, times, dates, venue details and all charges.
- Provide a safe and suitable venue for the training, appropriate to the number of participants.
- Provide a high level of customer service to participants from initial contact to completion of training.
- Conduct all activities and communications in a way that does not harm the reputation of the AoR.
- Hold valid insurance to cover public liability and professional malpractice for the training and services provided.
- Accept that the AoR will not be held responsible for any outstanding payments between the provider and any other parties.
- Accept that the AoR does not accept responsibility for any claims made against the provider or its staff or sub-contractors.

I also agree to:

- Display the AoR 'Route to Full membership' logo on my website
- Hand out student packs to students.
- Allow the AoR to visit your School/College to speak to current students if requested
